RABBI NATHAN A.
PERILMAN MEMORIAL
SERMON-LECTURE

Saturday, February 24
10:30 a.m.

Temple Emanu-El is pleased to welcome Rabbi Eugene Borowitz, who will be this year's guest speaker at the annual Rabbi Nathan A. Perilman Memorial Sermon-Lecture. Dr. Borowitz recently was given the title of "Distinguished University Professor" by the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion. In 2005, the Union for Reform Judaism bestowed upon him its Maurice N. Eisendrath Bearer of Light Award for service to Reform Judaism. In 2002, the Jewish Publication Society included him in its "Scholars of Distinction" series, with the publication of Studies in the Meaning of Judaism, a selection of his papers from the past 50 years. His latest book, The Talmud's Theological Language-Game, was published in 2006 by the State University of New York Press.

This event is named for Dr. Nathan Perilman, who served Congregation Emanu-El from 1932 until his retirement in 1973. In 1982, the congregation established this lectureship in honor of the 50th anniversary of Rabbi Perilman's ordination. The lecture is presented each year in the form of a Sabbath morning sermon. Dr. Perilman passed away in 1991.

WHO'S BIBLE IS IT?
Jewish and Christian
Interpretation of Scripture
Sunday, February 25

How does a faith
community relate to its holiest texts when those texts are appropriated by another faith?
How much did the early development of Christianity affect Jews and their interpretation of scripture? How much Christian interpretation was a response to the ways Jews worshiped and studied? While focusing primarily on the early centuries of the Common Era but using medieval Jewish and Christian texts as well, attendees will attempt to answer these questions and others.

PASSOVER AT EMANU-EL

IN THE PAST, our congregants have given generously of their time, hard work and dedication in volunteering to make major successes of both our Passover Homebound Delivery and our Second Seder for the Elderly. We again are asking for your assistance with these projects that have become wonderful Temple traditions. Packing of Passover meals for the homebound will occur on Sunday, March 18; delivery will be Sunday, March 25. Second Seder will be held Tuesday, April 3. If you are interested in volunteering, please complete the following form, indicating which assignment you prefer. We will make every effort to accommodate preferences to the extent possible. Return your form to the Temple office [One East 65th Street, 7th Floor, or FAX to (212) 570-0826] no later than Friday, March 2, so that we may plan effectively. A letter of confirmation with your assignment and instructions will be mailed to you shortly thereafter. On behalf of our guests, our Second Seder Committee co-chairs thank you and look forward to celebrating Passover with you.

AROUND THE TEMPLE

THE SEX ETHIC of JUDAISM Tuesday, February 27 6 p.m.

The Women's Auxiliary cordially invites all congregants to a special lecture with Rabbi David M. Posner. Through a reading of several texts from the classical Rabbinic period, Rabbi Posner will discuss how Judaism makes an intriguing transition from mere biology to sublime spirituality. Light refreshments will be served. RSVP by February 22. (212) 744-1400, ext. 235

SHABBAT SHALOM! Friday, March 2 6:30 p.m.

All congregants (adults and youth) are encouraged to sing, pray and learn with us at our monthly, late worship service. Connect with familiar melodies from our heritage as well as new ones that create a dynamic and refreshing approach to prayer. Enter at the Marvin and Elisabeth Cassell Community House, One East 65th Street.

SABBATH DINNER With ART SHAMSKY

Friday, March 9 6:15 p.m.

The Men's Club is pleased to welcome baseball legend Art Shamsky, part of the 1969 "Miracle Mets" team and one of the few Jewish major league ball players. Mr. Shamsky will discuss his championship experience and be available to sign baseballs and copies of his new book, The Magnificent Seasons. Don't miss this great night of fun for the whole family! Cost is $40 per person. RSVP by March 5. (212) 744-1400, ext. 250
