Suffering:
A Laughing Matter?
RUTH CALDERON
Sunday, March 20 10 AM–2 PM

SKIRBALL
CORNER

Rabbinic literature tells many stories about the suffering of Rabbi Akiba, the great first-century sage. Rabbi Akiba had a unique approach to tragedy. He often laughed when other sages cried. What can we learn from these and other stories of suffering? How can we make sense of the rabbinic concept of yisurim shel ahavah—sufferings of love? What can this concept mean for us today? Explore these and other questions with a unique scholar of rabbinic legend. Enter at One East 65th Street.

The cost for this event is $50 per person. To register or for more information, call (212) 507-9580 or log on to www.adultjewishlearning.org.

FROM THE ARCHIVES: CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

For the seven-month period of September 14, 1944, through April 7, 1945, Temple Emanu-El celebrated its 100th anniversary with a host of activities: a music festival, religious services for men and women in the armed forces, a women's forum, a lecture series with the theme "Moral and Spiritual Foundations for the World of Tomorrow."

On November 9, 1944, the Temple hosted a Centenary Fund Dinner at the Plaza Hotel to kick off its fundraising efforts and goal "to free the Temple from indebtedness."

On April 5, 1945, an anniversary dinner was hosted at the Waldorf=Astoria, overseen by Centenary Committee Chairman Roger W. Straus and Vice Chairman Walter N. Rothschild. Other committee members included Brigadier General Julius Ochs Adler, Alfred R. Bachrach and James Marshall (son of Louis Marshall). Only one woman served on the committee—Mrs. Edward B. Schulkind, president of the Women's Auxiliary.

The New York Times and the New York World-Telegram published articles announcing the anniversary. Also included in the Temple Archives are letters from various dignitaries, including Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, congratulating members, the rabbis and Temple officers on their anniversary. In his letter, Gov. Dewey writes:

The contribution of Emanu-El to the spiritual life of the community has been outstanding. The beauty of its present edifice is equaled by the active participation and leadership of its membership in all good causes.... I take this opportunity of joining citizens of the state of all creeds in sending my congratulations and best wishes to Emanu-El and its distinguished spiritual leaders upon its century of great achievements and the certainty that its future contributions to the welfare with the state and nation will be continued through centuries to come.

Bottom photo: Temple Emanu-El's Centenary Celebration booklet features Temple history as well as photos from various Temple groups, including the Women's Auxiliary, the Confirmation class and the Emanu-El Scout Troop.

AROUND THE TEMPLE

Thursday, March 24 6:30 p.m.
Family Purim Celebration

The Men's Club of Congregation Emanu-El invites all Temple members and their families to this special celebration in honor of Purim.

Our evening includes dinner and entertainment by Divahn, a music ensemble that infuses traditional Jewish songs with sophisticated harmonies and entrancing improvisations. This riveting live show features such instruments as the tabla, cello, violin, didgeridoo and doumbek, as well as vocals in Hebrew, Judeo-Spanish, Persian, Arabic and Aramaic. Front-woman, lead singer and anthropologist Galeet Dardashti follows a family tradition of distinguished musicianship dating back to 19th century Persia.

Divahn, a word common to Hebrew, Persian and Arabic, means "a collection of songs or poetry."

The cost for this event is $50 per adult, $35 per child (under age 13). Reserve your seating by Thursday, March 17. Call the Men's Club at (212) 744-1400, ext. 250. Enter through the Marvin and Elisabeth Cassell Community House, One East 65th Street.
