Kabbalat Shabbat - Welcoming Shabbat

Mah yafeh ha-yom, Shabbat shalom.

How lovely today is, Shabbat Shalom.

Hee-nei ma-tov u-ma na-eem
sheh-vet ah-kheem gam ya-khad.

How good it is, and how pleasant, when we dwell together in unity.

May the door of this place be wide enough to recieve all who hunger for love, all who are lonely for friendship.

May it welcome all who have cares to unburden, thanks to express, hopes to nurture.

May the door to this place be narrow enough to shut out pettiness and pride, envy and enmity.

May its threshold be no stumbling block to young or straying feet.

May it be too high to admit complacency, selfishness and harshness.

May this place be, for all who enter, the doorway to a rich and more meaningful life.

Where has this week vanished?
Is it lost forever?
Will I ever recover anything from it?
The joy of life, the unexpected victory,
the realized hope, the task accomplished?
Will I ever be able to banish the memory of pain,
the sting of defeat, the heaviness of boredom?
On this day let me keep for a while what must drift away.
On this day let me be free of the burdens that must return.

Help me to withdraw for a while
from the flight of time.
Contain the retreat of the hours and days from the grasp of frantic life.

Let me learn to pause, if only for this day.
Let me find peace on this day.
Let me enter into a quiet world this day.
PSALM 95:1-7

L’chu n’ra-n’na la-A-do-nai, na-ri-yah l’tzur yi-shei-nu.
N’kad-mah fa-nav b’to-dah,
biz-mi-rot na-ri-a lo.

Come, let us sing joyously to Adonai, raise a shout for our Rock and Deliverer; let us come into God’s presence with praise; let us raise a shout for God in song!

Ki eil ga-dol A-do-nai,
Ki hu E-lo-hei-nu
va-a-nach-nu am mar-i-to v’tzon ya-do,

Bo-u nish-ta-veh v’nich-ra-ah,
Ki hu E-lo-hei-nu
va-a-nach-nu am mar-i-to v’tzon ya-do,

Come, let us bow down and kneel, bend the knee before Adonai our maker, for Adonai is the God, and we are the people God tends, the flock in God’s care.

Ha-yom im b’ko-lo tish-ma-u.

O if you would but heed God’s charge this day.

PSALM 92:1-7; 13-16

A psalm. A song for Shabbat. It is good to praise Adonai; to sing hymns to Your name, O Most High, to proclaim Your steadfast love at daybreak, Your faithfulness each night, with a ten-stringed harp, with voice and lyre together.

You have gladdened me by Your deeds, Adonai; I shout for joy at Your handiwork.

The righteous bloom like a date-palm; they thrive like a cedar in Lebanon; planted in the house of Adonai, they flourish in the courts of our God. In old age they still produce fruit; they are full of sap and freshness, attesting that Adonai is upright, my Rock, in whom there is no wrong.

Blessed are You, Adonai our God, Ruler of the universe, who speaks the evening into being, skillfully opens the gates, thoughtfully alters the time and changes the seasons, and arranges the stars in their heavenly courses according to plan. You are Creator of day and night, rolling light away from darkness and darkness from light, transforming day into night and distinguishing one from the other. Ever-living God, may You reign continually over us into eternity.

Blessed are You, Adonai, who brings on evening.

Adonai, Your majesty is proclaimed by the marvels of earth and sky. Sun, moon, and stars testify to Your power and wisdom.

Day follows day in endless succession, and the years vanish, but Your sovereignty endures.

Though all things pass, let not Your glory depart from us. Help us to become co-workers with You, and endow our fleeting days with abiding worth.

בְּרוּחַ אֲחַת אֱדֹנָי, הַמַּעְרִיב עַדְּבִים.
Ba-ruch a-tah A-do-nai, ha-ma-a-riv a-ra-vim.
Blessed are You, Adonai, who brings on evening.

Praise to You, Adonai our God, from whom the evening flows. Your wisdom sets the way on which time and season glide; Your breath guides the sail of the stars. Creator of the tide of time and light, You guide the current of the day into night. As heaven spans to infinity, You set its course for eternity. Praise to You, Adonai our God, from whom the evening flows.

בְּרוּחַ אֲחַת אֱדֹנָי, הַמַּעְרִיב עַדְּבִים.
Ba-ruch a-tah A-do-nai, ha-ma-a-riv a-ra-vim.
Blessed are You, Adonai, who brings on evening.
Ahavat Olam

Everlasting love You offered Your people Israel by teaching us Torah and mitzvot, laws and precepts. Therefore, Adonai our God, when we lie down and when we rise up, we will meditate on Your laws and Your commandments. We will rejoice in Your Torah forever. Day and night we will reflect on them for they are our life and doing them lengthens our days. Never remove Your love from us. Praised are You, Eternal God, who loves Your people Israel.

Shema

Hear, O Israel, Adonai is our God, Adonai is one!
Blessed is God’s glorious rule for ever and ever!

You shall love your Eternal God with all your heart, with all your mind, with all your being.
Set these words, which I command you this day, upon your heart. Teach them faithfully to your children; speak of them in your home and on your way, when you lie down an when you rise up.
Bind them as a sign upon your hand; let them be symbols before your eyes; inscribe them on the doorposts of your house, and on your gates.

L’ma-an teez-k’ru va-a-see-tem

Be mindful of all My mitzvot, and do them: so shall you consecrate yourselves to Your God. I am your Eternal God who led you out of Egypt to by your God; I am your Eternal God.
Shelter us beneath Your wings, O Adonai. Guard us from all harmful things, O Adonai. Keep us safe throughout the night, ’till we wake with morning’s light.

Teach us God, wrong from right. Amen.

******

Help us, O God, to lie down in peace;
And teach us that peace means more than quiet.
Remind us that if we are to be at peace at night,
we must take heed of how we live by day.
Grant us the peace that comes from honest dealing,
so that no fear of discovery will haunt our sleep.
Rid us of resentments and hatreds that rob us of the peace we crave.
May we inflict no pain, bring no shame, and seek no profit by another’s loss.
May we live so that we can face the whole world with serenity.
May we feel no remorse at night for what we have done during the day.
May we feel no remorse in the daytime for what we have done during the night.
May we lie down in peace tonight, and waken tomorrow to a richer and fuller life.

Let there be love and understanding among us.
Let peace and friendship be our shelter from life’s storms.
Adonai, help us to walk with good companions,
to live with hope in our hearts and eternity in our thoughts, that we may lie down in peace and rise up waiting to do your will.
T’FILAH

A-do-nai, s’fa-tai tif-tach, u-fi ya-gid t’hi-la-te-cha.
Eternal God, open up my lips,
that my mouth may declare Your praise.

the sake of the Divine Name.

b’chol y’ha-l’lu-cha- selah.
You are holy, Your Name is holy, and those who are holy praise You every day.
Blessed are You, Adonai, the Holy God.
K’DUSHAT HAYOM - HOLINESS OF SHABBAT

You set aside the seventh day for Your Name, the pinnacle of Creation; and You blessed it above all other days, more sacred than all festival times.

So it is written in Your Torah:

Va-y-chu-lu ha-sha-ma-yim v’ha-a-retz v’chol

The heaven and the earth were finished and all their array.

On the seventh day, God had completed the work that had been done, ceasing then on the seventh day from all the work that God had done. Then God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, and ceased from all the creative work that God had chosen to do.
Our God and God of our ancestors, be pleased with our rest. Sanctify us with Your mitzvot, and grant us a share in Your Torah. Satisfy us with Your goodness and gladden us with Your salvation. Purify our hearts to serve You in truth. In Your gracious love, Adonai our God, grant as our heritage Your Holy Shabbat, that Israel who sanctifies Your Name may rest on it.

Praised are You, Adonai, who sanctifies Shabbat.

AVODAH - SERVICE

Find favor, Adonai, our God, with Your people Israel and accept their prayer in love. May the worship of Your people Israel always be acceptable. God who is near to all who call, turn lovingly to Your servants. Pour out Your spirit upon us.
HODA'AH - THANKSGIVING

Mo-dim a-nach-nu lach, sha-a-tah hu A-do-nai

We acknowledge with thanks that You are Adonai, our God and the God of our ancestors forever. You are the Rock of our lives, and the Shield of our salvation in every generation. Let us thank You and praise You - for our lives which are in Your hand, for our souls which are in Your care, for Your miracles that we experience every day and for Your wondrous deeds and favors at every time of day; evening, morning, and noon. O Good One, whose mercies never end, O Compassionate One, whose kindness never fails, we forever put our hope in You.

Blessed are You, Adonai, Your Name is Goodness, and You are worthy of thanksgiving.
SHALOM - PEACE

Grant abundant peace to Israel Your people forever, for You are the Sovereign God of all peace. May it be pleasing to You to bless Your people Israel in every season and moment with Your peace.

Ban-ruch a-tah A-do-nai, ha-m'va-reich et a-mo yis-ra-el ba-sha-lom.
Blessed are You, Adonai, who blessed Your people Israel with peace.

T'FI LAT HALEV - PRAYERS OF THE HEART

My God, guard my speech from evil and my lips from deception. Before those who slander me, I will hold my tongue; I will practice humility. Open my heart to Your Torah, that I may pursue Your mitzvot. As for all who think evil of me, cancel their designs and frustrate their schemes. Act for Your own sake, for the sake of Your Power, for the sake of Your Holiness, for the sake of Your Torah; so that Your loved ones may be rescued, save with Your power. And answer me.
ALTERNATIVE SILENT PRAYERS:
Days pass and years vanish, and we walk sightless among miracles. God, fill our eyes with seeing and our minds with knowing; let there be moments when Your Presence, like lightening, illumines the darkness in which we walk. Help us to see, wherever we gaze, that the bush burns unconsumed. And we, clay touched by God, will reach out for holiness, and exclaim in wonder: How filled with awe is this place, and we did not know it!

May these hours of rest and renewal open our hearts to joy and our minds to truth. May all who struggle find rest on this day. May all who suffer find solace. May all who hurt find healing. May all who despair find purpose. May all who hunger find fulfillment. And may this day fulfill its promise.

O Eternal God, in Your abundant goodness, we have been preserved during the past week. Through all our days flow the refreshing waters of Your loving kindness, yet we often forget the Source. May this hour awaken within us a sense of our dependence upon You. Create in us a clean heart and renew Your spirit within us that we may face our daily duties with greater courage and clarity of purpose. May we discover that in loving and serving others, we are loving and serving You. Guard us and our dear ones in the coming week. May we live together in love and unselfishness, so that happiness and peace may abide within our homes. May the spirit of the Sabbath envelop our lives with blessings of peace. Amen.

Yi-h’yu l’ra-tzon im-rei fi v’heg-yon li-bi

May the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart be acceptable to You, Adonai, my Rock and my Redeemer.

O-seh sha-lom bim-ro-mav, hu ya-a-seh sha-lom a-lei-nu, v’al kol yis-ra-el, v’im-ru a-mein.

May the One who makes peace in the high heavens make peace for us, for all Israel and all who inhabit the earth. Amen.
Mi Shebeirach - Prayer for Healing

Mi she-bei-rakh av-o-tei-nu Avraham,
Yitz-khak v’Ya-akov, v’ee-mo-tei-nu Sa-rah,
Reev-kah, Rah-khel, v’Lay-ah...

May the one who blessed our ancestors Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, Sarah, Rebekah, Rachel and Leah bless and heal those who are ill. May the Holy One be filled with compassion for their health to be restored and their strength to be revived. May God swiftly send them a complete renewal of body and spirit, and let us say... Amen.

Mi she-bei-rach a-vo-tei-nu m’kor ha-b’ra-cha l’i-mo-tei-nu.

May the Source of strength who blessed the ones before us help us find the courage to make our lives a blessing and let us say, Amen.

Mi she-bei-rach i-mo-tei-nu m’kor ha-b’ra-cha l’a-vo-tei-nu.

Bless those in need of healing with r’fuah sh’leimah, the renewal of body, the renewal of spirit, and let us say, Amen.

mal’chei ham-la-chim ha-ka-dosh ba-ruch hu.

Let us adore the ever-living God, and render praise unto You who spreads out the heavens and established the earth, whose glory is revealed in the heavens above, and whose greatness is manifest throughout the world. You are our God, there is none else. Therefore we bow in awe and thanksgiving before the One who is Sovereign over all, the Holy and Blessed One.

Thus is has been said, Adonai will be Sovereign over all the earth. On that day, Adonai will be one, and God’s name will be one.

Here, indeed, is an option worthy of our best efforts and noblest strivings: To believe that we are fashioned in the image of God, and possessed, therefore, of infinite dignity and worth. That we share with our Creator in the tasks of creation, in the building of a society in which human beings are encouraged to fulfill themselves in creative ways, to rise to their full stature as children of God, and to dwell together in justice and understanding, in freedom and peace. Here are goals within the reach of our minds and hearts and hands. Though we may not witness their fulfillment in our day and time, to believe in them is our destiny and to labor for them is our responsibility. And in that enterprise life finds its deepest and fullest and holiest meaning.

Let the time not be distant, O God, when all shall turn to You in love, when corruption and evil shall give way to integrity and goodness, when superstition shall no longer enslave the mind, nor idolatry blind the eye. O may all, created in Your image, become one in spirit and one in friendship, forever united in Your service. Then shall Your realm be established on earth, and the word of Your prophet fulfilled: “Adonai will reign for ever and ever.”

REMEMBERING

In the rising of the sun and its going down, we remember them.

_In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them._

In the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

_In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of the summer, we remember them._

In the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

_In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them._

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

_When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them._

When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them.

_So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us, as we remember them._

When I die give what’s left of me away to children and old men that wait to die. And if you need to cry, cry for your brother walking the street beside you. And when you need me, put your arms around anyone and give them what you need to give me.
    I want to leave you something,
    something better than words or sounds.
    Look for me in the people I’ve known or loved,
    and if you cannot give me away,
    at least let me live in your eyes and not in your mind.
You can love me best by letting hands touch hands,
and by letting go of children that need to be free.
Love doesn’t die, people do.
So, when all that’s left of me is love,
give me away.

There are stars up above,
    so far away we only see their light
long, long after the star itself is gone.
And so it is with people that we loved-- their memories keep shining ever brightly though their time with us is done.
But the stars that light up the darkest night,
    these are the lights that guide us.
    As we live our days,
        these are the ways we remember.

******

These things I know:
how the living go on living and how the dead go on living with them
    so that in a forest
    even a dead tree casts a shadow and the leaves fall one by one and the branches break in the wind and the bark peels off slowly and the trunk cracks
and the rain seeps in through the cracks and the trunk falls to the ground and the moss covers it and in the spring the rabbits find it and build their nest
    inside the dead tree
    so that nothing is wasted in nature or in love
May the Source of peace send peace to all who mourn, and comfort to all who are bereaved. Amen.
