בְּרוּךְ שֵׁם כְּבוֹד מְלַכּוּתוֹ לְעוֹלָם וָעֶד.

Baruch sheim k'vod malchuto l'olam va-ed.

Let us praise God who rules in glory forever and ever.

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be upon thy heart. Thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt speak of them when thou sittest in thy house, when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. Thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thy hand, and they shall be for frontlets between thine eyes. Thou shalt write them upon the doorposts of thy house and upon thy gates: That ye may remember and do all My commandments and be holy unto your God. I am the Lord your God, who led you out of Egypt to be your God; I am the Lord your God!

God of the universe, the stars in their courses and the changing seasons tell of Your infinite might. In these autumn days, the waning summer and the falling leaves bring no melancholy into our hearts. The season begins in joy with the bountiful gifts of Your unfailing goodness. We behold the fruits of tree and vine and gather to celebrate the harvest, the joyous festival of Sukkot.

The structures of stone and steel that our hands have wrought may make us boastful of human strength; but the fruits of field and orchard re-awaken our thoughts of You. When, on this festival, we bring into Your house the products of soil and sunlight, our thoughts turn to the miracle of the seed, the mystery of growth, the refreshing rain and the ripening sun. We learn anew that it is You who blesses our toil wherever we labor. All that we have comes from You.

Your bounty provides for all human needs if we are wise and generous in the use of Your blessings. Teach us to employ Your gifts for the well-being of all people. Let there be no famine or scarcity in any household or in any land. As soil and rain and sun unite to do Your will, so unify all of humankind to fulfill Your command to live together in mutual blessing. Spread over us the tabernacle of peace and unity, now and forevermore. Amen.

Silent prayer
